C. Police Coverage

- Sheriff Department feels that the city could use some of its own dedicated officers for better coverage.
- This could be a contract with the County, so that the city does not need to hire their own department.
 - Contract would cover wages and benefits of the county officer hired.
- Council would like a few questions answered:
 - Approximately how much would this contract cost the City.

- What is the number of hours the city is currently being patrolled by county officers?
 - Would council have a say in the hours/time that the city is being patrolled.
 - Could the cost be offset by sharing a contract with another village or city.
- The county currently patrols the city however it is based on the number of 911 calls and where the officers need to be dispatched and their available time after calls for patrolling.

10. CITY MANAGER REPORT

Mason reported the following:

- DPW/Water/Sewer has been receiving an inmate from the County Jail to assist with day-to-day projects they have going on.
- East City Limits received funding for more structural repairs and gravel from the Tribal Spring 2% grant.
